MCU DOCTOR POISED READY TO
"CHOP" PERI DOWN.
THE DOCTOR HAS A
CYBER-GUN WEDGED
AT HIS HEAD)
38. 5 A / THE DOCTOR: Let's discuss this,
3/shot PERI & CYBERMEN shall we?
39. 4 A / PERI: (TERRIFIED) I agree.
2/shot DOCTOR/LEADER LEADER: There is nothing to discuss.
THE DOCTOR: If you want my co-operation, she must live.

- - - - - PAUSE - - - - -
45. 1 J
MCU LEADER
- LEADER: Release the woman.
46. 5 A
3/shot PERI & CYBERMEN
- (THE CYBERMAN OBEYS. THE DOCTOR RESETS MOST OF THE BUTTONS ON THE CONSOLE.
- HE THEN PAUSES, THE CLOISTER BELL STILL CHIMING ITS MESSAGE OF IMMINENT DOOM) /
47. 4 A
2/shot DOCTOR/LEADER
- THE DOCTOR: You wouldn't cheat and change your mind?
- Track in to tight
2/shot on Q.

(1 next)

LEADER: You have my word.

THE DOCTOR: I'm not sure that's enough.

LEADER: Also that of the Cyber Controller.

THE DOCTOR: Your Controller was destroyed.

LEADER: No, merely damaged.

THE DOCTOR: Where is he now?

LEADER: Where you last met.
On our home planet, Telos.

(THE DOCTOR REACTS.
HE QUICKLY FINISHES
RESETTING THE CONSOLE AND THE CHIMES STOP)

50. 5 A
MCU DOCTOR
51. 1 J
MID SHOT TARDIS &
CONSOLE
- THE DOCTOR: You're from Telos?
That isn't possible. Telos is in a different time zone.
Cybermen can't/- (REALISES)
Oh, I see.
- LEADER: Correct. We can now time travel. Set the coordinates for Telos.
- (THE DOCTOR
RELUCTANTLY PUNCHES
/ IN THE CO-ORDINATES)

The Planet Telos
hanging in space.

b) Ext. Telos.
Bottom of Bank. Day.

STRATTON has finished cleaning out the head of the CYBERMAN.

As we join the scene he is undoing the neck of his boiler suit.

BATES: Come on. Hurry up.

STRATTON isn't happy,
but reluctantly slips
the Cyber-head on.

As he does, BATES picks up the Cyber Gun and breastplate.

With the Cyber-head in place, STRATTON is standing like a little boy waiting to be told what to do
next.

Note: The clear area of the Cyberhead, that exposes the wearers chin, has been dirtied down.

BATES: You've got to try a little harder than this,
Stratton.

- 2/6 -

BATES thrusts the gun into STRATTON'S HANDS and starts to do the buttons up on Stratton's boiler suit.

STRATTON: We won't get away with this.

BATES: So you keep saying.

STRATTON: (ON THE VERGE OF PANIC) Do I look like a Cyberman?

BATES: If no-one looks too close.

STRATTON: This is fantasy.
We won't convince anyone!

BATES completes
his work on STRATTON.

BATES: Look, you pathetic creature. All we need do is convince the guard on Cyber Control we're prisoner and escort..... That is until we can get close enough to deal with them.

STRATTON: It won't work.

BATES: You'd rather stay out here and die.

(ON STRATTON: HE WOULDN'T)

fg.

THE DOOR IS PUSHED
OPEN AND THE DOCTOR, GRIFFITHS, PERI AND
LYTTON SHUFFLE
INTO THE ROOM.

THE DOOR IS CLOSED BEHIND THEM)

THE DOCTOR: (GENUINELY CONCERNED)
This is bad news ... Very bad news! How could they have discovered the laws of time?

LYTTON: They haven't. A time vessel landed on Telos.
The Cybermen were able to capture
it.

THE DOCTOR: They only have one ship?

2. 1 B
CU DOCTOR
LYTTON: They will have two if you count the Tardis. /

THE DOCTOR: It still doesn't make it anyless depressing.
(SUDDEN THOUGHT) How did you kn about what happened on Telos? /

3. 3 A
CU LYTTON

LYTTON: Does it matter? Just be grateful you're alive. /

4. 2 C

PERI: I assume you know each other.

THE DOCTOR: Oh yes. The last time we met he was working for the Daleks. /

5. 3 A
CU LYTTON

LYTTON: That wasn't out of choice. Your regeneration has made you vindictive. /

6. 1 B
CU DOCTOR

THE DOCTOR: Not at all. I've never found it difficult to despise people like you. /

7. 3 A
CU LYTTON

LYTTON: I am not working for the Cybermen. I am in the same predicament as you. Look around you. /

8. 1 B
2/shot DOCTOR/PERI

(THE DOCTOR DOES
IN AN EXAGGERATED
MOCKING WAY)

PERI: I think he means he's also a prisoner.

THE DOCTOR: More likely a spy.

PERI: Does it really matter? He won't learn very much. And we certainly aren't going anywhere. Except Telos ... wherever that is. /

9. 3 A
MCU GR LITHS
Dev. to 2/shot with
PERI

GRIFFITHS: (LOOKS AROUND)
I'm finding all this a bit disturbing. Cybermen, Daleks, time-travel in an organ.

PERI: You'll get used to
it.

(ON GRIFFITHS: HE DOESN'T BELIEVE HER FOR A SECOND)

CYBERMAN: Controller, our instruments register an irregular transmission from the Tardis.

CONTROLLER: Inform the Cyber Leader - it will be the Doctor attempting to inform the Time Lords of his destination.

CYBERMAN: The Time Lord
will attempt to stop us.

CONTROLLER: Whatever in their wisdom, the Time Lords decide, they will be too late. Telos will have been destroyed and we shall have the Doctor's Tardis.

(THE DOCTOR HAS OPENED TWO ROUNDALS AND IS EXAMINING THE
PRINTED CIRCUITS
BEHIND THEM.

LYTTON HANDS THE
DOCTOR HIS SONIC
LANCE)

LYTTON: Is this of any use?

(HE TAKES THE LANCE)

LYTTON: I wouldn't try sticking it into the Cyber controller. He might snap your hand off.

PERI: What are you trying to do?

THE DOCTOR: Upset the navigational control. If I can distort the coordinates by just a fraction of a degree ...

PERI. We'd miss Telos?

THE DOCTOR: Not quite.

GRIFFITHS: What is Telos?
Is no-one gonna tell me?

AS DIRECTED

LYTTON: I would have thought.
Griffiths, even you would have managed to work that out by now.

(GRIFFITHS SCOWLS)

It's the Cybermen's home planet.

(THE DOCTOR CONTINUES TO FIDDLE WITH THE
CIRCUITRY IN THE ROUNDAL)

THE DOCTOR: Adopted planet.
(TO PERI) You would have liked Telos. In the old days. When the Cryons were in residence.

(SOMETHING THE DOCTOR IS WORKING ON ARCS
AND HE
LETS OUT A CRY.

BUT UNPERTURBED, THE DOCTOR CONTINUES WITH HIS TASK)

They were the indigenous population ... until the Cybermen wiped them out.

LYTTON: Because they had nowhere else to go.

THE DOCTOR: Oh, for heavens sake, man, the universe is littered with unoccupied planets.

LYTTON: But few with the facilities Telos offered.

THE DOCTOR: That's hardly an excuse!

PERI: What does he mean?

THE DOCTOR: Refrigeration.

(PERI STARES AT
THE DOCTOR.

HE HAS ALMOST
MADE HIS UTTERANCE
SOUND LIKE A SWEAR
WORD)

PERI: That is a strange reason to commit genocide.

THE DOCTOR: Not when you build refrigerated cities the way Cryons do. They have a genius for it. Mind you, they need to. They couldn't live in temperatures above zero.

PERI: If the Cybermen need the cold, they should try a winter in New England.

GRIFFITHS: Why did they need the cold?

THE DOCTOR: Hibernation ...
They were running out of power. They needed to rest.

(TO LYTTON)

And whatever you may think, Lytton, they could have built their own hibernation cells and refrigeration plant anywhere.

- 14 -

PERI: But why not on their own planet? I assume they had one.

(THE DOCTOR AND
LYTTON EXCHANGE
A GLANCE)

What's the matter?

GRIFFITHS: What's the matter?

LYTTON: Yes Doctor, what is the matter?

way.

(Stay on 1)

(On 1)

PERI: You must do something.
Inform Earth. Tell them it's coming... What's happening to us now must have something to do with it.

THE DOCTOR: How can I do anything? I'm a prisoner.

LYTTON: Even if he were free,
he couldn't. He would transgress
the Laws of Time.

PERI: You interfere continually..

THE DOCTOR: Not on such a scale.
Even I have to be careful.

LYTTON: The Time Lords would have him destroyed.

THE DOCTOR: That would please
you.

(TO PERI)

You've nothing to worry about.
Earth survived with minimal damage.
It's an historical fact.

LYTTON: He's right. It's all part of the web of time. In the same way that the Cryons were destroyed.

Let LYTTON leave
frame.

PERI: I'm not interested in the Cryons.

LYTTON: There's compassion for
you.

propulsion unit, - a tribute to Cyber engineering. Though why they choose to push a planet through space, I do not know. /

LYTTON: Any moment now, you will be able to ask the Cyber Controller himself.

(THE DOOR OPENS AND THE CYBER-LIEUTENANT & A CYBERMAN ENTER)

LIEUTENANT (TO PERI) You will come with me.

PERI: Why?

THE DOCTOR: Go with him, Peri.
This isn't the time to be difficult.

LIEUTENANT (TO THE DOCTOR) And you will go to the console room.

BATES: This one is, too.

GRIFFITHS: (TO LYTTON)

BATES: That's right.

BATES then rolls

BATES: This is what the Cybermen do to you?

GRIFFITHS, horrified

GRIFFITHS How much of
you ...?

BATES: Arms and legs.
Their conditioning process doesn't always work.

GRIFFITHS: You're sort of rejects?

BATES: That's one way of putting it.

GRIFFITHS: (TO LYTTON)
Will they do that to us?

LYTTON: Only if they catch us. But we won't be here for them to do that. Like you, we want to steal the time vessel.

STRATTON: It's a Cyberman
trap.

LYTTON: If it were,
you would already be dead.

BATES: We don't need you.

LYTTON: It requires a minimum crew of three to operate the time vessel.
I'm the third member.

BATES and STRATTON
exchange a cautious
glance.

LYTTON: I don't know how showing a secure route to the time vessels landing pad.

STRATTON: Who made it?

LYTTON: The Cryons.

BATES takes the case and casts a quick glance over the map.

LYTTON: As you can see,
the route is through the service ducts of Cyber

BATES: It looks credible.

PERI: What about Lytton? The Cybermen have got him.

THE DOCTOR: Then he should be happy.

See ROST enter frame L. for profile
3/shot

PERI: You don't understand.
He was working for the Cryons.

(THE DOCTOR TURNS TO ROST)

DOCTOR: For you?

(On 1)

ROST: Yes, for us.

PERI: You must do something.
You can't just leave him to die.

(PERI OPENS THE
DOOR OF THE TARDIS
AND ENTERS)

THE DOCTOR: (TO ROST) Where
is Lytton likely to be?

ROST: The laboratory.

THE DOCTOR: I'll see what I can do.....Good luck.

ROST: And to you, Doctor.

(THE DOCTOR ENTERS THE TARDIS)
